Changing fear to joy

By Mary Langdon, Kiwanis International Foundation Trustee

We made our way into the peripheral health unit, and I was amazed at how cool the building was. The women were brought to the back porch in groups of three for their tetanus vaccinations. Some of the women did not have a vaccination card and the nurse had to fill a

The Eliminate Project and SLP–great news from the SLKP conference!

Through brainstorming sessions, a dinner presentation and a service project, The Eliminate Project was well represented at the January 20-22 Service Leadership and Kiwanis Programs (SLKP) conference, which included more than 200 district administrators, district chairmen and governors-elect.

Florida Key Clubs and Kiwanis clubs partner to raise $14,000 for The Eliminate Project

Raising US$110 million to save or protect more than 61 million mothers and their future newborns from tetanus will take the collaboration of the entire Kiwanis family. All across the country Kiwanis clubs are partnering with their SLP clubs to make this a reality. One such project happened in Florida.

Big impact: A Michigan club rallies to support The Eliminate Project-and the local community

Just US$1.80 can save or protect a mother and her future newborns. The Kiwanis Club of Ann Arbor has gone well beyond that amount: as a 100K Club, its members will save or protect 55,000 mothers and their future newborns from MNT.
